

CRITICAL AND COMMERCIAL ACCLAIM FOR GLOBAL MEXICAN ARTIST

CARÍN LEÓN

LEÓN MAKES HISTORY AS THE FIRST LATINO ARTIST TO HEADLINE SPHERE IN LAS VEGAS

SEPTEMBER 11–13, 2026 (SOLD OUT)

ADDED NEW LABOR DAY WEEKEND DATES, SEPTEMBER 4–6, 2026

CARÍN LEÓN IS BRINGING MÚSICA MEXICANA AND COUNTRY EVER CLOSER

The New York Times

READ HERE

“Known best by the cowboy hat he wears cocked to the side and his blues-inflected Sonoran croon, the Latin Grammy-winning balladeer carries himself with the steely gaze of a cowboy and the swagger of a rock star.”

Los Angeles Times

“...a game changer if there was one”

npr music

“One of the most prominent and influential figures in Regional Mexican music today, known for his rich storytelling and dazzling instrumental skills.”

billboard

- Recently received three nominations for the upcoming 26th Annual Latin GRAMMY Awards for his album Palabra de To's (Seca).
- Won his first ever Grammy Award for Best Música Mexicana Album in 2025
- Three Latin Grammy Awards wins, 2022: Mejor Canción Regional Mexicana for Como lo hice yo, 2023: Mejor Álbum Norteno for Colmillo de Leche, 2024: Mejor Álbum de Música Mexicana for Boca Chueca Vol. 1.
- Most nominated male artist for the 37th annual Premio Lo Nuestro awards, with an astounding 10 nominations
- Has collaborated with the likes of Cody Johnson, Leon Bridges, Maluma, Carlos Vives, Chimbala, Alejandro Fernández + more